

I oppose RM-10807 because the proposal is for an aggregate total of written exam and Morse testing results. These are 2 seperate requiements, with a well established minimum proficiency required for each, as it should be. Use of an aggregate total diminishes the importance and significance of one or the other elements, which is an unaccepatable and undesireable affect.